Speaker Spotlight

2024

Master of Ceremonies: Ray Jang

Ray worked as a pharmacy assistant in a chain drug store for four years while completing the University of British Columbia's Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences undergraduate program. Following graduation, he worked in the same community pharmacy where he was an assistant until he completed a hospital pharmacy residency program based out of St. Paul's Hospital in Vancouver, BC. With over 25 years of practice as a pharmacist in several different hospitals, Ray has been active in the field of pharmacy, participating in various roles and committees within the College of Pharmacists of BC, the Pharmacy Examining Board of Canada, and Lower Mainland Pharmacy Services. Some examples of Ray's involvement includes serving as a past board member for six years at PEBC on the national level, previously working as a Chief Examiner of PEBC for four years in Vancouver at the local level, served as the past chair of the CPBC Registration Committee for several terms, and currently working as an interim pharmacy manager within Lower Mainland Pharmacy Services. When not thinking about the field of pharmacy, Ray can be found cycling, fishing, or spending time with his spouse and two daughters.

Entertainment: Engagement Unlimited Guess That Tune!

Join us for an awesomely fun group activity that gets participants up on their feet, singing, dancing, and battling head-to-head in the ultimate music competition! Teams will be pitted against each other in a series of music based games. How deep is your knowledge of music trivia? How well are you able to Shake it Off? How familiar are you with iconic song lyrics? Find out on Friday evening during Guess That Tune!

Speaker: Mike Kandler

Session Title: The Role of the Clinical Pharmacy Technician to Improve Outcomes for Renal Patients

Mike Kandler began his hospital career as a pharmacy technician for 3 years at Royal Columbian Hospital while completing his pharmacy degree at the University of British Columbia. After pharmacy school, he completed his Accredited Canadian Pharmacy Residency in 2009 and began his career as a Clinical Pharmacist working at Surrey Memorial Hospital before eventually moving to Abbotsford in 2016. He has a strong interest in Medicine, Critical Care, and recently spent 5 years practicing pharmaceutical care in the outpatient Renal Dialysis Clinic before starting a new Clinical Pharmacist Educator position at Abbotsford Regional Hospital in 2023. Outside of the pharmacy, Mike enjoys spending time with his spouse and two sons, coaching and officiating hockey, and travelling.
